ABRACADABRA NYC

As Seen In Film and Television

For over four decades, Abracadabra NYC has supplied costumes, props and specialty pieces to film and television productions across New York and beyond.

The store's distinctive inventory has appeared in productions including

Terrifier 2, alongside countless other screen and stage projects.

Its broad selection makes it a resource for production teams, performers, costume designers and anyone looking for something genuinely unusual.

Before You Order

Check measurements carefully before selecting a costume or wearable item.

Compare your measurements with the sizing information provided for the product.

For masks and headwear, measure around the head where the item will sit.

Allow room for clothing underneath costumes when appropriate.

If between sizes, review the individual product details before ordering.
